

THE BERMUDA NATIONAL TRUST

Consolidated Financial Statements

(With Independent Auditor's Report Thereon)

Year Ended December 31, 2020

TO THE MEMBERS OF THE BERMUDA NATIONAL TRUST

These consolidated financial statements of The Bermuda National Trust (the "Trust") are the responsibility of the Trust's Council.

These consolidated financial statements have been prepared by management in accordance with accounting standards for not-for-profit organisations generally accepted in Bermuda and Canada, and necessarily include some amounts that are based on management's best estimates and judgments.

Management has developed and maintains systems of internal accounting controls, policies and procedures in order to provide reasonable assurance as to the reliability of the financial records of the Trust.

The Trust Council has established a Finance Committee. Its members are volunteers drawn from the community. This Committee reviews these consolidated financial statements with management prior to submission to the Trust's Council for approval.

KPMG Audit Limited, Chartered Professional Accountants, are responsible for performing an independent audit of these consolidated financial statements in accordance with International Standards on Auditing and for expressing an opinion on the consolidated financial statements.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Members of The Bermuda National Trust

Qualified opinion

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of Bermuda National Trust (the "Trust"), which comprise the consolidated balance sheet as at December 31, 2020, and the consolidated statements of operations, changes in fund balances and cash flows for the year then ended, and notes, comprising significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

In our opinion, except for the possible effects of the matter described in Basis for qualified opinion section of our report, the accompanying consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of the Trust as at December 31, 2020, and its consolidated financial performance and its consolidated cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations generally accepted in Bermuda and Canada ("ASNFP")

Basis for qualified opinion

The Trust derives the following revenues from the general public in the form of donations, which are included as $507,232 (2019 - $622,290) of non-government gifts and grants, $718 (2019 - $11,212) of admissions revenues, $47,200 (2019 - $47,215) of membership fees, $22,864 (2019 - $59,929) of sales - Trustworthy and publications, $98,467 (2019 - $119,256) of other income and $191,616 (2019 - $358,789) of revenues from special events which are included in the consolidated statements of operations, changes in fund balances and cash flows, the completeness of which is not susceptible to satisfactory audit verification. Accordingly, our verification of these revenues was limited to the amounts recorded by the Trust. Therefore, we were not able to determine whether any adjustments might be necessary to revenues and the excess (deficiency) of revenues over expenses reported in the consolidated statements of operations and changes in fund balances and cash flows for the year ended December 31, 2020, and cash and cash equivalents and fund balances reported in the consolidated balance sheet as at December 31, 2020.

We qualified our audit opinion on the consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2019 with regard to this same matter.

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (ISA). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the consolidated financial statements section of our report. We are independent of the Trust in accordance with International Ethics Standards Board for Accountants International Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (including International Independence Standards) (IESBA Code) together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the consolidated financial statements in Bermuda and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the IESBA Code. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our qualified opinion.

Responsibilities of management and those charged with governance for the consolidated financial statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with ASNFP, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Trust's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Trust or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Trust's financial reporting process.

Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the consolidated financial statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with ISAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Trust's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Trust's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Trust to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

THE BERMUDA NATIONAL TRUST

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

December 31, 2020

1. Incorporation and organisation

The Bermuda National Trust (the "Trust") was established by the Bermuda National Trust Act, 1969 (as amended by the Bermuda National Trust Amendment Acts, 1970, 1982, 1984 and 1989).

The principal objectives of the Trust are to promote, for the benefit of Bermuda, the permanent preservation of buildings of beauty, historical interest or public interest and their surroundings, as well as lands with regard to their natural features and animal and plant life, furniture, pictures, documents and chattels of any description having national, historical or artistic interest, to maintain and manage lands acquired by the Trust as open spaces and buildings acquired for public use, and to promote the enjoyment of these properties by the public.

2. Summary of significant accounting policies

These consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Accounting Standards for Not-for-Profit Organisations ("ASNFP") contained in Part III of the Chartered Professional Accountants of Canada Handbook - Accounting and include the following significant accounting policies:

(a) Basis of consolidation

These consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Trust and its wholly-owned subsidiary, the Bermuda National Trust Endowment Company Limited (the "Endowment Company"). All intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated upon consolidation.

Interests in jointly controlled assets and related fund-raising projects are accounted for using the proportionate consolidation method. This results in the Trust recognising in its consolidated balance sheet its share of jointly controlled assets as well as its share of liabilities incurred jointly with other venturers, and in its consolidated statement of operations its proportionate share of any related revenues earned and expenses incurred (Note 12).

(b) Fund accounting

The Trust maintains its consolidated financial statements in accordance with the restricted fund method of accounting. Resources are classified for accounting and reporting purposes into funds according to the activity or objective specified.

The General Fund accounts for the Trust's operating activities.

The Capital Fund accounts for the Trust's capital related fund-raising activities.

The Property Fund accounts for the Trust's collections and capital assets.

The Endowment Fund accounts for gifts which are permanently restricted as to principal. Income on endowments may be used for maintenance of specified properties, nature reserves, or in support of general operations.

THE BERMUDA NATIONAL TRUST

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

December 31, 2020

2. Summary of significant accounting policies (continued)

(c) Revenue recognition

Restricted contributions related to general operations are recognised as revenue of the General Fund in the period received or receivable, or if made for future periods' operating expenses, are deferred and included in revenue in the periods when applicable expenses are incurred. All other restricted contributions are recognised as revenue of the appropriate restricted fund in the year received or receivable, if the amount to be received can be reasonably estimated and collection is reasonably assured.

Unrestricted contributions are recognised as revenue of the General Fund in the year received or receivable if the amount to be received can be reasonably estimated and collection is reasonably assured.

Contributions for endowment are recognised as revenue in the Endowment Fund.

Investment income is recognised as revenue of the appropriate fund when earned.

Net realised gains and losses on the sale of investments and changes in fair value of investments are recorded in the Capital and Endowment Funds in the consolidated statement of operations.

Rental income is recognised as revenue of the General Fund on a straight-line basis over the period of the lease.

(d) Inventory

Inventory is carried at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Cost is determined on a weighted average cost basis. Provision is made where necessary for slow-moving or obsolete inventory.

(e) Investment in FIDNAT

The investment in the FIDNAT partnership is stated at cost.

(f) Capital assets

Purchased capital assets are recorded at cost less accumulated depreciation. Contributed capital assets are recorded at fair value at the date of contribution. Capital assets are separated into their significant component parts when practicable and when estimates can be made of the lives of the separate components. Depreciation is provided on a straight-line basis over the assets' estimated useful lives as follows:

Computer equipment and software	3 years
Office equipment	5 years
Vehicles and other equipment	7 years
Park improvements	20 years

Capital assets are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable. When a capital asset no longer has any long-term service potential to the Trust, the excess of its net carrying value over any residual value is recognised as an impairment expense in the consolidated statement of operations.

2. Summary of significant accounting policies (continued)

(g) Properties and collections

The Trust's properties and collections represent purchased historic buildings and surrounding land, nature reserves, museum artifacts, and works of art and are recorded at cost. Donated properties and collections are recognised when legal title passes to the Trust and are recorded at management's estimate of fair market value using independent appraisals where available. Proceeds from the sale of properties and collections are restricted to the purchase, restoration and maintenance of properties and collections, respectively. Properties and collections are not amortised.

(h) Cash and cash equivalents

For purposes of the consolidated statement of cash flows, the Trust considers all money market instruments and short-term deposits with an original maturity of ninety days or less as equivalent to cash.

(i) Donated services

Donated services, other than volunteer services, are included in the consolidated financial statements at fair value on the date of the donation. Professional fees donated with a fair value of $34,200 (2019 - $34,200) have been recorded in non-government gifts and grants in the consolidated statement of operations. The Trust is dependent on the efforts of its volunteers for the continuing operations of the Trust. Because of the difficulty in establishing the fair value of volunteer services, they are not recorded in these consolidated financial statements.

(j) Financial instruments

Financial instruments consist of cash and cash equivalents, investment in marketable securities, accounts receivable and accounts payable.

Marketable securities quoted in an active market are carried at fair value, with the related net change in fair value included in the consolidated statement of operations. The fair value of the marketable securities is based on quoted market values. Transaction costs are recognised in the consolidated statement of operations in the period incurred.

Purchases and sales of marketable securities are accounted for at the transaction date.

Accounts receivable are measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method, less any adjustment for impairment.

Accounts payable are measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

Financial assets are tested for impairment when there are indicators of impairment. The amount of the write-down is recognised in the consolidated statement of operations. Any previously recognised impairment loss may be reversed to the extent of the improvement, directly or by adjusting the allowance account, provided it is no greater than the amount that would have been reported at the date of the reversal had the impairment not been recognised previously. The amount of the reversal is recognised in the consolidated statement of operations.

12. Buy Back Bermuda Campaign (continued)

The preservation expenses in 2020 include the restoration of Eve's Pond which is a 3.36 acre reserve situated in Hamilton Parish. Restoration is ongoing and the reserve is expected to open to the public in 2022.

13. Financial instruments

The Trust is exposed to the following financial risks arising from its financial assets and liabilities:

Market price risk

Market price risk is the risk that future changes in market prices may render financial instruments less valuable or increase the liability associated with such instruments. Exposure to market price risk is determined by a number of factors, including the size, duration, composition and diversification of positions held, the absolute and relative levels of interest rates and foreign exchange rates, as well as market volatility and liquidity.

Exposure to market price risk associated with investments in marketable securities is equal to the carrying value of the instruments as recorded in the consolidated balance sheet.

The Trust is exposed to the investment activities of the underlying investment portfolios which may not be transparent to investors and could be affected by the actions of other investors. The Trust's exposure to market price risk in respect of investments is limited to the on-balance sheet carrying value of the investments. Management engages in initial and on-going assessments of all sources of risk presented to the portfolio.

Currency risk

Currency risk arises from changes in the prevailing foreign currency rates. Assets and liabilities are predominantly held in the functional currency of the Trust, which is the Bermuda dollar. The Trust is not exposed to significant foreign currency risk.

Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk that a customer or counterparty to a financial instrument fails to meet its contractual obligations to the Trust, and arises principally from cash and cash equivalents and accounts receivable.

The Trust deposits the majority of its cash surpluses with two Bermuda-based banks, HSBC Bank Bermuda Limited which has an A- credit rating and Bank of N.T. Butterfield and Son Ltd., which has a BBB+ credit rating according to S&P.

Accounts receivable

The Trust's exposure to credit risk is influenced mainly by the individual characteristics of each customer. The Trust's receivables are with multiple Bermuda based customers, and are subject to normal industry credit risks.

The maximum exposure to credit risk for receivables at the reporting date is represented by the carrying value on the consolidated balance sheet.

At December 31, 2020, 21% of receivables were current, 33% of the receivables were 31 to 90 days past due and 46% were more than 90 days past due. The receivables past due for more than 90 days are considered collectible for services rendered and as such no provision for impairment has been established.

THE BERMUDA NATIONAL TRUST

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

December 31, 2020

13. Financial instruments (continued)

Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk arises from changes in the prevailing levels of market interest rates. The Trust is exposed to interest rate risk on its cash and cash equivalents which earn interest at variable market rates.

Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk the Trust will encounter difficulties meeting its financial obligations as they become due. Management does not believe that the Trust is exposed to significant liquidity risk.

14. Capital management

The Trust defines capital, for its own purpose, as cumulative fund balances. During the fiscal year 2019, the Trust's objective when managing capital, which was unchanged from the prior year, was to hold sufficient funds to enable it to withstand negative unexpected financial events and continue as a going concern. The Trust seeks to achieve this objective by minimising its exposure to financial leverage and variable financial obligations and by holding cash and term deposits to maintain liquidity to enable it to meet its obligations as they become due. As at December 31, 2020, the Trust's consolidated total fund balances amounted to $18,484,849 (2019 - $18,399,481). A significant portion of the fund balance is subject to both internally and externally imposed restrictions (Note 10).

15. Government remittances payable

Included in accounts payable are government remittances payable of $14,625 (2019 - $17,791).

16. Subsequent events

Subsequent to year end, many countries and territories including Bermuda have continued to experience waves of outbreaks of the COVID-19 virus which was officially declared a global pandemic on March 11, 2020 by the World Health Organization. Management is closely monitoring the evolution of this pandemic, including how it may affect the economy and general population. Given the inherent uncertainties, it is not practicable at this time to fully determine the impact of COVID-19 on the future operating and financial performance of the Trust. However, an assessment of captions within the consolidated financial statements that have a potential to be impacted include rental income, special events, gifts and grants non-government, accounts receivable and investments in marketable securities. To date the Trust has not observed any material impact on its operations or financial position as a result of COVID-19 and therefore continues to adopt the going concern basis in preparing these consolidated financial statements.
