

BERMUDA NATIONAL TRUST

Nominations for Annual Awards 2026

The awards are presented annually to recognise individuals, organisations, groups and schools that have worked to protect and promote appreciation for Bermuda's natural and cultural heritage, or whose work has enhanced Bermuda heritage awareness or understanding.

The deadline for nominations is Friday 10 April 2026.

CATEGORIES:

Heritage Education Awards

Awarded to educational institutions (pre-school through college) for projects, programmes or initiatives that demonstrate conservation or other care of Bermuda's natural or cultural heritage.

Nominations are invited for schools, home-schools and after-school clubs.

Cultural Heritage Awards

Awarded for positive impacts on Bermuda's cultural heritage through conservation, advocacy or education.

Nominations are invited for protecting, advocating for or research on cultural heritage; restorations or renovations of historic buildings; conservation of heritage sites or artefacts; promoting appreciation or awareness of cultural heritage.

Nominations are also invited for the Young Heritage Leadership Award, presented to a young person in recognition of their outstanding contribution to Bermuda's cultural heritage for a considerable length of time. The nominee must be less than 26 years old by 31 December of the year preceding the nomination.

Natural Heritage Awards

Awarded for positive impacts on Bermuda's natural heritage through conservation, advocacy or education.

Nominations are invited for protecting, restoring, advocating for or research on the natural environment or for inspiring appreciation and awareness of Bermuda's natural heritage.

Nominations are also invited for the Outstanding Young Environmentalist Award, presented to a young person in recognition of their outstanding contribution to Bermuda's natural heritage for a considerable length of time. The nominee must be less than 26 years old by 31 December of the year preceding the nomination.

Service to the Trust Awards

Nominations are invited for the Palmetto Award, the Bermuda National Trust's highest honour, awarded for outstanding service to the community in areas of concern to the Trust, or service to the Trust itself.
